Paul Walker is from Deer Park, Washington. He is a world champion and 12-time national champion, PAMPA Hall of Fame member, and also a NATS Concours de'Elegance award winner. Generally acknowledged as one of the most accomplished stunt competitors of all time, he revolutionized the event by demonstrating what was possible using modern propulsion and trim techniques while winning 5 straight National Championships from 1990-94. He also found the time to be the PAMPA president at a critical point in the history of the organization and also was a NATs Event Director.
